

Who We Are

St. Jude's Metropolitan Community Church is a member of the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches (UFMCC). We are a Christian church serving the religious, spiritual, and social needs of gay, lesbian, bisexual, trans-gendered people, our friends, our families, and our supporters. Unlike many mainline congregations, St. Jude's is a melting pot of religious backgrounds, Cultural traditions, and societal status. Just as it is stated in I Corinthians 12: 12-27, we are all different, and we will have different gifts, but we will work as one as the body of Christ. It is our diversity that gives us strength and understanding. It is our diversity that awakens us to the full, wonderful spectrum of God's creativity in the human race. Thank God for the uniqueness of each person and the gifts that God has given them. We are families and single people; adults, children, and youth; students, retired persons, unemployed, and professionals. We are a community where everyone is welcome.

Activity and Ministry

We meet on Sunday mornings at 9:30 am and 11am, and Sunday evenings at 7pm, . Communion is served at every service, and is open - you need not be a member of St. Jude's or any other church to take communion with us. Christ provides the meal with only one requirement: "Do this in remembrance of me." As a rapidly growing church, we offer many opportunities, and have a great need for your participation in our many small group ministries and outreach programs. We celebrate life's ceremonies: weddings, blessings, christenings, baptism, funerals and the blessing of lesbian/gay relationships. And we do a whole lot more...

What We Believe

We believe that the message of the Bible is that God loves all people without exception or condition. All people are created in God's image to bring peace, love, and justice to the world. We believe that through faith in Jesus Christ, we are given new life. Through this we are called to be Christ-like in the world today. The Holy Spirit sustains us in our faith walk, makes God's love known to us and empowers us to share God's love with others. We believe that the community of faith, the church, is a place of strength, comfort and hope in a world that is often self destructive and unloving. We believe in calling people to new life through the liberating Gospel of Jesus Christ. We believe in confronting the injustice of poverty, racism, and homophobia through Christian social action. We believe in creating a community of healing and reconciliation through faith, hope, and love .
